Circus Writing Prompts

Instructions:

Print the pages.

Have your student choose a writing prompt and a writing page.

Show your student the word bank as an additional way to help generate ideas.

Students could also create their own writing prompts and use the pages to record their ideas and stories.

Encourage students to proofread their work when finished.

Circus Writing Prompts

#1: Congratulations! You are the new lion tamer. Describe how you will tame the lions.

#2: Have you ever been to the circus? If so, describe your favorite circus memory. If you haven't been to the circus, use your imagination to invent a favorite circus memory.

#3: Write a story about a crazy circus clown.

#4: If you could be a circus animal, which one would it be? Why?

#5: Create your own circus. Describe the sights, sounds, and smells. What food would you serve? What acts would you include?

#6: Imagine that you joined the circus. Write a letter to persuade your friend to join the circus, too.
